

See the Light 2014

2030: Achieving Intelligent Energy Balance

stl.phai.ie

Friday 7 November 2014 | 8:30 - 18:00
University College Dublin Student Centre, Building 70

Programme

08.30 | Registration / Coffee

09.00 | Plenary Presentations - Astra Hall

Introduction (Dr Shane Colclough, PHAI Chairman)

Welcome Address UCD (Prof Gregory O'Hare, Director of the UCD Earth Institute)

Strategic Issues in Achieving Nearly Zero Energy Buildings (Dr. Brian Motherway, CEO SEAI)

Lessons from the Past and Needs of the Future for Passive Houses Today (Prof Robert Hastings)

Financing Retrofit 2030, David Hughes
Awarding of Design Charette Prizes

10.40 | Coffee and Tour of Trade Exhibition

11.00 | Morning Parallel Sessions (details online at stl.phai.ie)

12.30 | Lunch / Exhibition

13.30 | Afternoon Parallel Sessions (details online at stl.phai.ie)

15.00 | Coffee

15.30 | Plenary Presentations - Astra Hall

Presentation of Design Charette Winner's Project

The Corporates' Role in Achieving Intelligent Energy Balance (Noel Morrin, Skanska)

16.00 | Panel Discussion: How to Achieve Intelligent Energy Balance

Chair George Lee with Pat Cox, Noel Morrin, Prof Robert Hastings, Prof Gregory O'Hare and Prof Michel De Paep

Closing Remarks

17.00 | Drinks Reception & Networking

Themes

Exemplary Irish PassivHaus Projects • Post Occ Research and Innovation • From Passive House to Passivhaus • Building Regulation - Part L and BC(A)R • Passive House Ventilation • The International Perspective on Retrofit

Tickets

€120 Regular Admission

€95 PHAI Members

€30 UCD Students

Register online at stl.phai.ie

Edge Events

Student Design Charette

Wednesday 5 and Thursday 6 November

This annual student design competition is a new initiative of PHAI. Winners will demonstrate their projects at the conference. All participants receive free entry to the conference.

Passive House Tours

Saturday 8 November

Visit examples of Passive Houses and Near Zero Energy Buildings in conjunction with the Passive House / NZEB Open Days.

UCD Earth Institute

Better understand today's world.
Inform solutions for tomorrow.